

Checklist For Home Sellers

A lot of factors need to be considered before selling your home. It is important to plan everything in advance to smoothen the home selling process. The smartest move is to make a checklist and proceed accordingly.

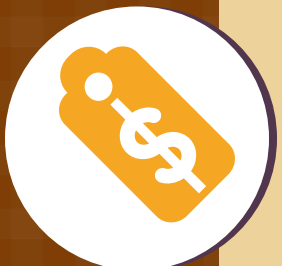

Research local housing market & calculate equity of your home.

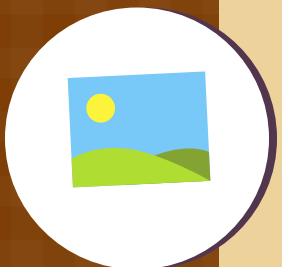

Estimate the cost of repairs you need to make, before listing your home.

List your property on multiple listing services or get in touch with real estate agents.

Set the price of your home depending upon your home's fair market value.

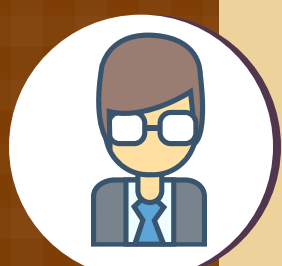

Make sure to add photographs of your home along with a brief description.

Consider remodeling projects to increase the sale value of your home.

Give your home's virtual tour to buyers by adding videos in the advertizement.

Hire a professional home stager to make your house look more inviting and welcoming.
